What's Happening?

March 31 & April 7
10:30am | Atrium

The Biblical mandate for parents is summarized in Ephesians 6:4:

"Fathers [parents], do not provoke your children to anger [do not exasperate], but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord."

With God's help, what can we do to raise God-centered, other-oriented children, ruled by biblical principles written in their hearts; and what we can avoid doing, or do different, so that we do not exasperate our children? Join us as we examine these topics together. This class will be taught by Parkview Elder Chair, Mark Mysnyk. Reserve your spot at parkviewchurch.org/events.

Doug Schillinger | Lead Pastor

Philippians Recap: Key themes from a great book...

- Our identity: Saints in Christ Jesus, and servants of Christ Jesus
- Our charge: Live humbly, contend together for the Gospel
- Our greatest joy: Jesus: "To live is Christ, to die is gain"

What happens to us when Jesus is our joy...

1) Contentment

Philippians 4:10-13

- Contentment is not complacency, indifference or apathy.
- Contentment through Jesus is having joy regardless of circumstances.
- When we are content, we proclaim to the world "Jesus is....."

2) Generosity

Philippians 4:14-19

- The Philippians: Examples of Generous Givers: 2 Corinthians 8:1-5; 9:6-15
- How Generous People Give:
- Why Generous People Give:

3) God is Glorified

Philippians 4:20-23

God is glorified when...

- His people greet, serve, and love each other
- The Gospel spreads through faithful servants
