I. A COURAGEOUS, HUMBLE HELPER (God's work in Ruth)

- Free from _____, we can live courageously!
- Free from _____, we can live humbly.
- Free from _____, we can live humbly.

Q: Are you living like you are under God's wings?

II. A BETTER LIFE (God's work in Boaz)

*Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now, listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women. Let your eyes be on the field that they are reaping, and go after them. Have I not charged the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink what the young men have drawn." Then she fell on her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?" But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told to me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before. The Lord repay you for what you have done, and a full reward be given you by the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge!" Ruth 2:8-12

Q: Who is the outsider in your life?

Q: How has Jesus shown kindness to us as outsiders?

III. A BITTER HEART FINDS SATISFACTION (God's work in Naomi)

And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz." And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by the Lord, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!" Naomi also said to her, "The man is a close relative of ours, one of our redeemers." Ruth 2:19-20
